From body obsession to better health, from bullying to building cohesive classrooms. ABC icon Tony Jones joins the seventh Positive Schools conference. An essential two days of positive education for all Australian primary and secondary school educators.

Attend keynote talks ranging from classroom humour to engaging students. Choose from twenty sessions in five parallel streams including a living library of positive education and the power of rhythm with Drumbeat. Immerse yourself in a Master Class, which lifts us ‘out of our minds’ into a ‘Body of Evidence’ for health, wellbeing and effective education.

Among our day one keynote presentations, Kaz Cooke asks how we engage every student. Dr Kerry Howells gives weight to gratitude and Therese Joyce helps us teach with classroom humour and Dr Helen Street challenges the myths of effective education.

What can every teacher in every school do to improve the health and wellbeing of young Australia?

In 2015, 20 interactive sessions are presented in five parallel streams, each with a distinct theme. In STREAM ONE, Geelong Grammar School presents ‘A Living Library of Positive Education in Action’. beyondblue hosts STREAM TWO with MindMatters and KidsMatter. Dr Michael Carr-Gregg leads STREAM THREE with strategies for bullying reduction. Professor Sue Roffey hosts STREAM FOUR nurturing positive relationships with the help of the essential rhythms of DRUMBEAT. Our 2015 aim to build healthy schools is embraced in STREAM FIVE with Richard Pengelley, ACHPER and body image expert Thea O’Connor.
